Dear Friend,

Make your voice heard for the LA River Greenway! Together with the LA River Revitalization Corp, we're asking for your support of my Assembly Bill 1922, the Greenway Development and Sustainment Act.

AB 1922 has already passed the Assembly and is now in front of the State Senate. This bill will empower local governments throughout California to designate and develop urban greenways like the one planned for the LA River. Please sign this petition to urge the Senate to pass AB 1922.

Local organizations and neighbors all over Los Angeles are collaborating to show unified support online for LA River revitalization - you can help by sharing the petition on Facebook and Twitter and asking your friends to sign.

Here are two posts you can cut and paste to your favorite social media:

Love the #LARiver? Help us support #Greenway2020 & urban greenways with Asm @JimmyGomezCA. Sign our petition: <http://bit.ly/1IDcr2r>

I support #LARiver revitalization. Sign the petition <http://bit.ly/1IDcr2r> for #AB1922 by Asm @JimmyGomezCA.

By spreading the word, you are joining efforts to transform the LA River corridor, revitalize local neighborhoods, create spaces for recreation and art, improve much needed urban green space, and attract investment to boost the local economy.

Tell the California Senate just how important LA River revitalization is for the future of LA! Help us show unified support for AB 1922 and sign the petition now!

Sincerely,

Jimmy Gomez
Assemblymember, 51st District

Upcoming Yappy Hours

Bow Wow Luau and Membership Drive: July 27th 5-7 pm. We're going Hawaiian! Come support FHDP with your generous donation, and bring the kids to the face painter booth. Dogs can pose with their grass skirt, Hawaiian shirt or lei in our FHDP Photo Booth!

Pet Education Seminar

Seminar Topic: Ears, Nose, Throat- a perspective on different ailments that can affect your dog. Allergy season, tooth decay, and ear infections can get a pup down. Dr. Lisa Hsuan, D.V.M. will answer all your questions on August 31st, from 5-7 pm. To learn more about Dr. Lisa click here (www.ahccla.com/our-staff <http://www.ahccla.com/our-staff>)

PARK ISSUES: Questions, Comments, Suggestions- We Hear Ya!

There is a suggestion box in the large dog park, and Friends of Hermon Dog Park is reading your comments and suggestions. Four years ago FHDP was given a grant for a local artist to design and build a sculpture for the dog park. Titled "Hermon On the Ball", we are hoping this project will be completed by early 2015. Membership dues, donations, etc. during these four years have not gone to fund this project. Your donations go towards Yappy Hour events, nars and bio-degradable poop bags. We are working with the city to bring Los Angeles' first permanent dog agility course- and are trying to raise $5,000 to purchase BarkPark equipment. We have received monies from Arroyo Seco Neighborhood Council and are hoping with your generous donations we will be able to purchase by the end of the year.

PLEASE DONATE: We are looking for broken concrete, river rocks, natural rocks for the dog park. Please email us for pick-up contact@hermondogpark.org or bring to a Yappy Hour. Also, we are looking to extend the large dog fence to include the large tree. We are working with the city and Rec and Parks to get the fence relocated. Another concern is the dusty decomposed granite that was delivered a couple of months ago. We are working with the city and Rec and Parks to rectify the situation so we will get a better composition. If you have any questions or concerns, please email us at contact@hermondogpark.org

5 Councilmember Cedillo's E-Newsletter 6.20.14

Sat Jun 21, 2014 11:11 pm (PDT) . Posted by: asncaalert

GREETING FROM COUNCILMEMBER GIL CEDILLO

Friends,

Congrats to all the grads and dads! This week started off with work on mural preservation, conservation and restoration and some community events. We went fishing at MacArthur Park, kicked off Summer Nights in Chinatown, participated in the NELA Art Walk, and kicked off HOLA's Ghetto Film School for youth. The rest of the week was spent congratulating individuals. We congratulate the LA Kings for winning the championship, Senator Kevin De Leon for being elected Senate President ProTem, and honored CA Governor Jerry Brown and Rick Najera for their accomplishments in the Latino community.

We end the week with a fraud warning from the LADWP department. If you are called and asked to pay an outstanding bill immediately or face service shut off, please call LADWP at 1-877-275-5273.

Gilbert A. Cedillo
Councilmember, District 1

LEGISLATIVE UPDATE

Mural Restoration Efforts

'La Offrenda' by Yrenia Cervantes

On Wednesday during the Arts, Parks, Health, Aging and River Committee Meeting, Councilmember Gilbert Cedillo voted to support the Proposed Citywide Mural Project. The proposed project allocates $1.75 million to accomplish the following goals:

- Preserve, conserve, and restore historically significant murals throughout the city with an emphasis on City-sponsored murals.
- Produce new murals that re-engage communities, especially youth, and create new opportunities for muralists.
- Provide technical assistance, training and workshops for muralists as well as interested community members and stakeholders, and develop digital mural documentation, presentation and engagement platforms that offer interactive educational and cultural tourism opportunities.

CD1 has two murals up for restoration, 'La Offrenda' by Yrenia Cervantes on Toluca Street under the 1st Street bridge, and 'Return to the Light' by Charles Freeman on 227 East Avenue 41.

Honoring Rick Najera

Today Councilmember Cedillo honored Rick Najera in Council. Rick is a poet and producer, actor and comedian, award-winning TV writer, denizen of the Latin quarter—Hollywood Hills and Great White Way. He has been recognized as one of the "100 Most Influential Latinos in America" by Hispanic Business Magazine. Rick has directed and written for some of the biggest Latino stars in Hollywood, such as Sofia Vergara, Edward James Olmos, Jimmy Smits, Eugenio Derbez, Gabriel Iglesias and Mario Lopez. Early in his career he was mentored by Oscar-winning actress Whoopi Goldberg, comedy producer Keenen Ivory Wayans and Chicano icon Cheech Marin. He also helped launch the first ever Latino Performing Arts Institute at Oxnard College, where he serves as Artistic Director.

FIELD UPDATE

MacArthur Park Fishing Derby

Saturday Councilmember Gil Cedillo joined hundreds of Westlake children and MacArthur Park residents to fish. The fishing derby is an annual event coordinated by the Daniel Hernandez Foundation and sponsored by Councilmember Gil Cedillo, Senator Kevin de Leon, the Department of Recreation and Parks, CA Fish and Game and State Parks. A huge thank you to Andy Ho, MacArthur Park director for helping coordinate the event, and to State Parks for watching the fish overnight.

Chinatown Summer Nights

Saturday kicked off the first of three Chinatown Summer Nights (CSN). Put on by the Chinatown Business Improvement District, in partnership with KCRW, CSN provides fun and entertainment for Angelinos of all ages. A blanket of confetti covers Central Plaza as DJ's and live bands bring a new attitude to Chinatown. Community members participated in a meatball eating contest and were able to enjoy Chinatown's best cuisines as well as various food trucks as well as participate in traditional Chinese crafts such as calligraphy and sculpture. This is becoming a favorite tradition in the community and we look forward to many more to come. We look forward to seeing you July 12th and August 9th for the remaining events.

NELA Art Walk

Councilmember Cedillo's Highland Park District once again participated in the monthly Northeast LA Second Saturday Gallery Night. The Second Saturday Gallery Night is sponsored by NELAart, an arts organization featuring art at 46 galleries. One of Councilmember Cedillo top priorities is support for the arts. Every quarter his Highland Park District office features a different art exhibition.

The CD1 District Office currently includes art provided by Ave. 50 Studio in Highland Park. The Avenue 50 Studio is an arts presentation organization grounded in Chicana/o and Latina/o culture, visual arts, and the Northeast Los Angeles area. They seek to build bridges of cultural understanding through artistic expressions. They develop programming to inform the community through innovative projects that connect artists, students, academics, and members of the community. Avenue 50 is committed to providing a place where the life and artistic interests of an under-served community can be made visible.

Join us at the next Northeast LA Second Saturday Gallery Night on Saturday, July 12th, 7:00PM - 9:00PM at Councilmember Cedillo's Highland Park District Office (5577 N. Figueroa Street, Los Angeles, CA 90042). We will feature art provided by Heart of Los Angeles (HOLA), a non-profit organization based in Westlake/MacArthur Park. HOLA provides underserved youth with exceptional programs in academics, arts and athletics within a nurturing environment, empowering them to develop their potential, pursue their education and strengthen their communities.

Ghetto Film School with HOLA

On Monday Councilmember Cedillo celebrated the beginning of Ghetto Film School Los Angeles alongside David O. Russel, Tony Brown and Peter Rice. The program will take place on sight at Heart of Los Angeles, located in the MacArthur Park neighborhood and is sponsored by 21st Century Fox. Twenty-three students will be able to participate in a free, 30-month program that includes instruction in cinematic storytelling and production training.

Selig Place Sidewalk Replacement

Before

After

Repairing sidewalks within the City helps improve pedestrian safety, access, and reduces city liability. This year the City set aside $10 million dollars for sidewalk repair associated with City facilities. We are proud to report that the sidewalk along Selig place has been replaced.

Thank you City family.

NEWS UPDATE

GO KINGS GO!

Congratulations to the Los Angeles Kings for once again winning the Stanley Cup. You make us all even prouder to be Angelinos.

Senate Pro Tem Kevin De Leon

Congratulations to State Senator Kevin De Leon, who has unanimously elected to serve as the Senate President ProTem of the California Senate. He becomes the second Latino leader of the Senate, and the first in more than 130 years.

Congratulations Kevin! Si Se Puede!

Thanking Governor Brown

Today Councilmember Cedillo welcomed California Governor Jerry Brown to Los Angeles to thank him for his unwavering support of the immigrant community and for his leadership in signing the CA Dream Act (AB130 and AB131) and the CA Driver's License (AB60).

LADWP Scam Alert

Persistent phone scammers are deceiving LADWP customers into paying non-existent water and power bills with threats of immediate service shut off. Don't fall victim to phone scammers posing as LADWP "collection" personnel. Some things to keep in mind:

- LADWP employees will NEVER ask for personal payment information over the telephone. They will never ask you to purchase pre-paid cash cards from a convenience store to pay your utility bill.
- Payment by telephone can ONLY happen through the Department's voice automated payment system, not with live employees. LADWP personnel do not accept payment information verbally over the telephone.
- If you receive a call asking for a cash card, credit card, person-to-person cash payment, or a request for any other personal information, hang up immediately and call the Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) at 1-877-275-5273 or go to your local LAPD station.
- LADWP customers who want to inquire about their accounts should call 1-800-DIAL-DWP and speak to a customer service representative, or check online at ladwp.com with no waiting time.

Safety and service excellence are of utmost importance to LADWP. Victimization of LADWP customers will not be tolerated. Impostors can expect to be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

Immigrant Heritage Month Celebration

Councilmember Gilbert Cedillo, Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti and Welcome.us (www.Welcome.us), invite you to help us celebrate Immigrant Heritage Month on Wednesday, June 25th. We will host a light reception at the rotunda before the council meeting.

The schedule is as follows:

9:00AM Press conference at forecourt

9:30AM Reception and Recognition

10:00AM Council Presentation (Proclaiming June as Immigrant Heritage Month)

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Fredy Ceja at Fredy.Ceja@lacity.org.

6 YWCA, The Works, #SaveAnthony, and MORE!

Sat Jun 21, 2014 11:12 pm (PDT) . Posted by: asncaalert

Los Angeles County Supervisor Gloria Molina

Hello again! Wow the weather this week has been gorgeous. I hope you've been getting out and enjoying it. I certainly have! I'll tell you about the wonderful time I had at the Sail-A-Thon and at the YWCA Grand Opening last Saturday. I also want to tell you about a cool app and Rock the 29th! The Hollywood Bowl has it's opening night tomorrow, are you going? Finally I want to tell you about Anthony Michaelides, and ask for your help to #SaveAnthony.

Enjoy the newsletter, and enjoy your weekend!

– G

I'll Have 'The Works'

Do you have a pothole that needs to be filled? Annoying graffiti that you want cleaned up? Want to remove trash on the streets? Do you live in an unincorporated part of Los Angeles County? There's an app for that! MORE

Get Empowered!

Last Saturday, I was honored to help open the new YWCA Gloria Community Empowerment Center! I teared up listening to the Walnut Park Elementary School Children's Choir sing. It felt very fitting to celebrate Walnut Park's centennial as we opened the doors of this beautiful center, which will provide an array of social services to Walnut Park families. It was a gorgeous day in unincorporated Walnut Park and I felt so touched to help celebrate the opening. I was even more touched that the YWCA chose to name this center after me. What an honor! MORE

Fun, Fireworks, & Family

Get ready to kick-off the 3rd Annual East LA Arts Fest as we Rock the 29th at the East Los Angeles Civic Center! This year, in partnership with the Los Angeles County Department of Parks and Recreation, Supervisor Molina's ArtsFest includes an Artwalk featuring local artists and artisans, concerts, movie nights, interactive dance and music sessions. The East Los Angeles ArtsFest kicks-off with an all day concert and fireworks spectacular on Sunday, June 29, 2014 featuring Grammy Award Winner Evelyn Champagne King. MORE

#SaveAnthony

I don't typically do this. But I wanted to reach out to all of my subscribers and ask you to take a minute to learn about Anthony Michaelides. This young man was an amazing mentor to youth in Boyle Heights. He is 25 years old and was in a motorcycle accident on June 15, on Father's Day in Los Angeles. He was driving on the freeway when he lost control, hit the guard rail, and then fell over the rail from a height of 100 feet. He barely had a heart beat when the paramedics picked him up and brought him to the hospital. He is in the critical care unit and is undergoing many operations as we speak. Come Sail Away With Me!

This past Saturday, June 14th the second annual Sail-a-Thon was held at Belvedere Park Lake in East Los Angeles. Matt Schulz, President and Founder of LifeSail Inc, along with his team provided a sailing opportunity for over 100 children! The majority of the children who participated were first-time sailors and they were lucky to go out on the water on such a gorgeous day! MORE

9 Northeast L.A. Bike Lane Meeting Draws Complaints

Sat Jun 21, 2014 11:12 pm (PDT) . Posted by: asncaalert

<http://egpnews.com/2014/06/northeast-l-a-bike-lane-meeting-draws-complaints/>

By Jacqueline Garcia, EGP Staff Writer

Hundreds of people attended a community meeting in Northeast Los Angeles last week to weigh in on the different options being considered for bike lanes on North Figueroa between Avenue 22 in Cypress Park and Avenue 60 in Highland Park. Thirty minutes into the meeting, people began to walk out, complaining it was a “waste of their time.”

The June 12 meeting, hosted by Councilman Gil Cedillo at Franklin High School in Highland Park, was a follow up to a meeting in May, which according to several first-hand reports dissolved into outright hostility between pro-bike lane and anti-bike lane participants. Both meetings were billed as opportunities for the community to provide feedback on the Los Angeles Department of Transit's (LADOT) proposals for improving bike safety along North Figueroa.

In 2010, Los Angeles approved a citywide plan to increase the number of dedicated bike lanes in the city as a way to create safer cycling opportunities and to encourage more residents to use this form of transportation in their daily commutes.

The plan highlighted several priority areas, including Northeast L.A. The original proposed route ran along North Figueroa from San Fernando Road to York Boulevard, but has since been cut by more than 2 miles. It includes four possible alternatives, including one that calls for removing one of two southbound traffic lanes — referred to as a road diet — which appears to be drawing the most heated responses on both sides of the issue.

Lea este artículo en Español: Participantes Dicen Reunión Sobre Plan de Bicicletas Fue una 'Táctica de Obstrucción'

Prior to his election last year, Cedillo expressed support for the road diet plan but since taking office has opted to hold more community meetings on the proposal, saying people who travel the corridor and businesses along the route have expressed concern that reducing lanes for cars will cause traffic tie-ups and increase emergency response times.

But supporters of alternatives to physically separate cyclists from cars and trucks, say slowing traffic by 45 seconds is not too much to ask if it prevents injuries to cyclists and saves lives.

"We are advocating for bike lanes on NorthFig because it is part of the master plan that the city already approved," Los Angeles County Bicycle Coalition member Alek Bartrosouf told EGP before the meeting. "There are a lot of cyclists supporting this movement, we have like 1,500 petitions signed online and about the same amount on paper," he added.

However, the biggest controversy at last week's meeting was not the proposed street changes, but the meeting format which included a lengthy lecture by CD-1 Special Projects Deputy Sharon Lowe on how participants should behave, Cedillo introducing and thanking friends and staff for their support and discussing several topics unrelated to the bike lanes, and Nat Gale of the mayor's office speaking on the Great Streets Initiative that includes North Figueroa between Avenue 50 and Avenue 60.

Responding to the raucous May meeting, Lowe warned attendees to be civil and to refrain from clapping, cheering or making any other disruptive noises, or risk being ejected.

Some of the restless participants turned to social media to air their frustration: "It is now 45 min since this community meeting was scheduled to start and it is just Cedillo talking about himself," tweeted HLP90042.

"If I had a 20 person staff and a $2 million budget, I sure wouldn't have treated public so disrespectfully," tweeted Flying Pigeon LA, a bike shop in Cypress Park whose owner Joseph Bray-Ali is an ardent supporter of bike lanes.

Dozens of people walked out early, telling EGP they felt "disrespected" and were unhappy Cedillo chose to "filibuster" the meeting rather than listen to their feedback.

However, Cedillo's communications deputy, Fredy Ceja, told EGP via email that the councilman "took the time he felt he needed to connect with the audience" and to address concerns raised during the May meeting. "The councilman felt the meeting was a success" because it addressed the current plan and other alternatives to address public safety on Figueroa, Ceja said.

"We are pleased with the outcome, it was an improvement over the first meeting," Ceja added.

In his 15 years attending hundreds of community meetings, Bray-Ali said he has "never seen something this ridiculous and insulting ... And that not clapping, if we are together as a group they cannot enforce that. Whether you are opposing or in favor, think of all the man hours that have been squandered" here, he said.

When discussion did finally turn to the bike lanes, LADOT representative Tim Fremeaux explained that residents were being asked to vote on one of the four options under consideration:

- No change,
- Option 1: Install buffered bike lanes—removal of one-southbound traffic lane,
- Option 2: Install bike sharrows (arrow and bicycle signage used to remind drivers to share the road with cyclists) – 2 lanes each direction, or
- Option 3: Install a climbing bike lane—southbound sharrow—two traffic lanes in each direction.

Audio problems, however, made it hard for many in the audience to hear parts of the presentation, including the question and answer period, adding to the frustration and both proponents and opponents yelling at the presenters that they couldn't hear anything. "Bare with us," LADOT's Michelle Mowery pleaded with the audience.

But not everyone left upset last Thursday. "What Councilmember Cedillo heard loud and clear in May is that safety is a huge issue on the street and that was reflected in [this] presentation," Erick Bruins told EGP.

"At the end of the day, no one is going to remember one or two poorly run outreach meetings," Bruins said.

"At this point, Cedillo has all the information he needs to make a decision."

Moving forward, LADOT and the council office will select one of the alternatives, with the plan being to begin construction sometime in July.

The York awaits World Cup fans | Marni Epstein
By Marni Epstein

LAist says that Highland Park's The York scores big points as one of the best spots to catch all the action of The World Cup. They're open early for your viewing pleasure and have flat screens as well as a projector to cheer on your team alongside some delicious gastropub eats.

In other Shopper & Diner news:

- In other sporting news, the LA Weekly reports that Dodger Stadium strikes out when it comes to vegan and overall veggie options. The generic veggie dog and a somewhat-elusive "veg out cup" remain the only vegan-friendly fare when rooting for the Dodgers. With so many recent food additions to the park, can alternative diet options really be that far behind?
- LA Weekly also notes a recent upgrade to the Eagle Rock Farmer's Market. The long standing market recently moved venues. The move now finds the market in a greener and friendlier, it not smaller, confines. Now rather than concrete, the family-friendly Friday market has a more ideal space in which families can roam.
- The Center Theatre Group plans to open its newest costume and prop shop in Boyle Heights, and to celebrate they will be hosting a free community barbecue on June 28, writes Broadway World. Art making activities, live music, and DJ set are planned for the event.

Marni Epstein Epstein is an entertainment, music, and lifestyle Journalist and resident of Echo Park. She has previously worked in the film and digital media industries with FOX and Sony Pictures Entertainment. She is currently also pursuing a Masters in Historic Preservation.
